

Editing Apps for Apple & Android

Adobe Premiere Rush Available on Apple & Android

Best for: Advanced students looking for basic exposure to professional editing software (since Adobe Premiere Pro for desktops is what the film pros use!)

Cool Features

- You can fully customize your video by dragging, dropping, and trimming multiple videos and other media right on your phone!
- Music is auto-synced and adjusts automatically as you add new footage

Additional YouTube tutorial

Magisto Video Editor & Music Slideshow Maker Available on Apple & Android

Best for: New filmmakers looking for a simpler, step-by-step guide to the basics of video editing

Cool Features

- Artificial intelligence that helps organize your video footage and deliver your intended message
- Built-in music library

Additional Tutorial

Filmora Available on Apple & Android

Best for: Students who love making videos for social media!

Cool Features

- “Easy Mode” feature for beginning filmmakers
- Effect store with preset intros, themes, and transitions to add to your video

Additional tutorial

Video Show Available on Apple & Android

Best for: The aspiring YouTuber looking to add some extra creativity to their videos!

Cool Features

- Easily add text overlays, stickers, and filters to your footage
- Free sound effects & music library

Additional Tutorial