AT&T Youth Voices Collective Film Competition FAQs

What does it cost to enter?

There is no fee to submit your film to the contest.

When is the contest submission deadline?

The deadline to enter the Youth category is April 27, 2021.

How long has the AT&T Youth Voices Collective Film Competition been in existence?

Launched in 2016 as the AT&T Film Awards - Youth Category, the AT&T Youth Voices Collective Film Competition is a competition and program designed to support, reward, and nurture aspiring student filmmakers across the U.S. The competition seeks imaginative, undiscovered short films from emerging creators who want their voices heard. We are currently running the 7th edition of the competition.

What types of films are you looking for?

The Youth Film Award will go to the top videos produced by youth filmmakers age 13-19 related to the one of following themes:

- o Climate Change
- o Social Justice
- o Digital Divide

Are there any exclusions?

Films must have been completed after January 1, 2019. The entry must not contain any content or material that is lewd, obscene, sexually explicit, pornographic, disparaging, defamatory, libelous, obscene, violent, racist, derogatory of any ethnic, racial, gender, religious, professional or age group or otherwise inappropriate or objectionable, as determined by the Judges and/or Sponsor in their sole and absolute discretion.

What is the maximum length of short film that will be accepted?

Projects must not exceed a total viewing time of three (3) minutes.

What submission formats do you accept?

All short films must be submitted via .mp4 or .mov format with a minimum 1080p HD resolution. We require that all VR/MR/AR projects must include a link to a secure, 360 online version of your project or 2D playthrough via an external site (e.g. your website, YouTube 360, Vimeo, etc.)

Can you provide feedback on my film?

Due to the high number of submissions, we unfortunately cannot provide feedback on any entries.
