

Recruitment Kit

SMITH FRESH FILMS

The Fresh Films Recruitment Kit was developed to help promote Fresh Films' filmmaking opportunities to young creators.

This kit provides everything you need to inspire students, from pre-written newsletter copy to engaging social media posts, making it simple to reach a wide audience.

Inside, you'll find all the essential tools to connect with potential participants and inform educators and youth influencers.

By using the materials provided, you'll help bring awareness to the opportunity for teens to build real film skills, work with professional equipment, and discover future internships and careers in the industry.

Share the excitement, inspire participation, and join us in empowering the next generation of storytellers!

Newsletter Copy

Newsletter Copy

This newsletter is a great way to connect with Teen Influencers—like teachers, coaches, and parents—focused on helping youth explore creative paths in filmmaking, media, storytelling, and building skills that will lead to internships and jobs in the industry.

Headline Options:

- Want to work in film?
- Film dreams start here!
- Think the film industry is out of reach? Think again!

Ready to turn your ideas into films? No experience needed—just bring your passion! Starting January 14, join Fresh Films and dive into the world of filmmaking. You'll work with top-tier equipment, connect with Hollywood pros from Sony, Paramount, America's Got Talent, and more, and create projects that could land on The Roku Channel.

You'll complete 4 projects that'll level up your skills and boost your resume, opening doors for college and job opportunities. Plus, we offer paid summer jobs on professional film sets after the program!
